This Special Consideration Form may be used by you and your family (Independent students or Parents of Dependent students) to report unusual or unforeseen changes to your family income that you believe impacts your ability to contribute to your education at Mount Aloysius College. It can also be used if you and your family have extraordinary expenses that provide you with less available income (medical, dental, dependent care or elementary/high school tuition expenses). These extraordinary expenses cannot be for purchases of consumer goods or services or other lifestyle choices. Other ineligible circumstances include: loss of overtime pay, expenses related to personal living such as car/mortgage payments, credit card bills, wedding/vacation expenses, lottery winnings, one-time bonus or legal awards, utilities bills, etc. Before the Financial Aid Office can review any of the information you must have your 2024/25 FAFSA on file and completed the verification process if you were selected. In addition, a Special Consideration request will not be processed if your SAI ranges from -1500 to 0 or you are a Graduate student.
